

Tip of the week! 25 augustus 2020

This weeks tip is all about you! (AGAIN)

You as a singer, you as a musiclover, you as a musician and you as a songwriter. Use your instincts!

In the following weeks I will post a few "Make up your Minds". These blogs are all about finding out who you are as a singer and as a musician.

Make up Your Mind PART TWO

WHO AM I AS A MUSICIAN?

Don't think too long about the answers, use your instincts, write the first thing that comes to mind.

List:

1 Who is your biggest role model in music?

2 Which SpiceGirl or Backstreet boy were you?

3 Choose one song you play or sing for every emotion and write them down.

What song do you sing while feeling: happy, sad, relaxed, stressed or angry?

4 Choose 2 instruments out of this list: drums, bassguitar, guitar, keys, vocals, violin, saxophone, trumpet, trombone, percussion and cello.

5 Choose between: electric/acoustic, intimate/bombastic, slow/up, imagination/reality, day/night, pure/artificial, sound/silence, vision/hearing, instrumental/with vocals, a cappella/with band, loud/soft, Dutch/English, sitting at a concert/standing at a concert, candles/LED, commercial/non-commercial, classical/popular, children/adults.

Write down your answers each week and in the end you've gotten to know yourself a bit better :D

HAVE FUN!
